From consulting practice to an eight-product software suite.●

SalesCollab began as a sales-consulting team helping South African businesses build predictable revenue. Over the last five years we have productised what we learned — every playbook, every workflow, every spreadsheet that reps and operators kept rebuilding — into software.

Today we ship a connected suite of eight products across three clusters: Grow, Close and Operate. Buy one to fix a single bottleneck, or adopt the whole suite to run the revenue engine end-to-end. Either way, you deal with one accountable partner — not a stack of vendors.

GROW

Attract demand and turn it into pipeline.

CLOSE

Equip reps and get contracts over the line.

OPERATE

Run the business behind the business.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR YOU

One team. One roadmap. One invoice.

No finger-pointing between vendors. We build, host, integrate and support every product on this page — so every hand-off between marketing, sales and operations is inside our four walls.

- Revenue-share or flat SaaS

Start with one bottleneck. Scale to the whole suite.

01 Request a demo

Book a 30-minute call. We map your funnel, pick the one or two products that unlock the biggest constraint first.

02 Pilot in weeks, not quarters

Most products go live in 30 days or less. Data, integrations and rep training are on us.

03 Expand across the suite

Add products as new bottlenecks appear. Every solution shares a common CRM spine — Pulse.
